REPUBLICAN GRATITUDE.

The ingratitude of the old republics has not escaped the opprobrium of posterity. To the present day there are millions of people who think the modern republics quite as ungrateful as the old ones, partly because, living under monarchical regime, they know no better, partly because democratic ingratitude has been transmitted from generation to generation as an historical axiom. Pity 'tis that all these credulous and prejudiced people cannot come over to witness the evidence of the contrary, the gratitude of the people and the great veneration in which all great men are held not only in the Argentine Republic, but in Uruguay, Chile, last not least in Venezuela.

No sooner a man of note is coffined in these climes than his friends, his admirers, his countrymen begin the preparations for the erection of a monument commemorating his merits and deeds. Alsina's statue was erected in the Plaza of Libertad a few months after his death; the old traditional name of a street was erased and his put instead. The papers wore mourning and their columns teemed with a funebrious eloquence that showed the firm roots of popularity of the departed. All had occasion to admire these spontaneous expressions of gratitude, springing from a generation that grew around the deceased and was intimately acquainted with his great genius.

Another great man has recently disappeared from the stage of human affairs, but he leaves behind a memory treasured by all. Speaking over his grave one of the greatest living Argentines proposed, in eloquent and touching words, that a statue be raised to him cast in the printing type that had conveyed for so many years his great doctrines to the people. All endorse the idea, and there could be no more palpable proof of the gratitude of the people than this unanimous expresion of opinion. Statues will, no doubt, be raised to Iriondo and Bayo by the people of Santa Fé, and on all sides we have proof that the gratitude of modern republicanism stands out in extraordinary contrast to the ingratitude of the old republics.

There is a particular feature about this emulation to raise statues and perpetuate the memory of great men. A superficial study of the present will shew that this fever of grateful admiration is limited to the leading characters of this generation; all appear willing to raise moments to the memory of men they knew personally and admired in the mutual struggle for life. This is a particularity of the days we are living in, and Argentines appear to have reached that unenviable stage which finds a precedent in Greek history, when Athenians were willing to raise scores of statues to Demetrius, but would not raise a stone in memory of their forefathers.

Now, whilst statues have been raised to Alsina, to Mazzini, and all are talking of Gomez, Iriondo and Bayo—Rivadavia, the greatest Argentine, and Admiral Brown, the saviour of the country, are forgotten. Could there be a greater contradiction than this egotistical admiration of the present and this persistent oblivion of the past? Let the leading characters of the day trust to posterity for the vindication of their talents and merits. Their friends and admirers may, perhaps, err by too great an appreciation of merits which may fail to be recognised by the discriminating pen of the historian. If statues be raised, let them commemorate men who occupied a place in history, and whose deeds and genius have not only leapt the barriers of time, but have stretched beyond the frontiers of their country to be recorded on the tablets of the world's historian.

The men who mooted the erection of a statue to Admiral Brown have been endeavouring for years to overcome the freezing indifference of the people; every obstacle they have encountered in a mission which all thought easy to accomplish. Years ago Argentines should have cast a statue to the gallant sailor whose fame has crossed the ocean to bear witness to the world of the glory and bravery of Argentines. The cannon which he captured from the enemy should be melted for the statue to the Argentine Admiral.

Rivadavia, the greatest man this country ever produced, is forgotten. The faint attempts made to raise a monument to his memory have escaped the attention of the public. There was some effervescence three years ago; a site was chosen for the statue; a foundation stone and documents were interred, but since then nothing further has transpired. A rumor has been recently floated that the foundation stone and documents have been removed by order of the Lord Mayor, but no credit can be given to such preposterous news.

It is high time that Argentines should bestir themselves in this matter. There is too much mutual admiration rampant at present, and in a period of such material prosperity as the present it looks as if the moral, republican principles were slackening in the vortex of extravagance and a venal struggle for life. The great ties that link the people to the past are loosening, and this oblivion of the men who are beacons in Argentine history shews an unhealthy state of affairs in the midst of the praise and admiration lavished on men of talent and of note, no doubt, but who can never aspire to the historical rank of those whom the people have so readily forgotten.

There are many aspirants to immortality on the stage around us, and if the present profusion of popular gratitude can be considered a reliable basis for induction, they will all figure in the squares of the city before the end of the century. The gratitude of the moment is, no doubt, a powerful impulse to embryonic great men, but it is a melancholy display of weakness, since it is rampant at the expense of the greater men of the past. Happily all these moral deficiencies do not last long; the reaction must come sooner or later, and in fact it may be already impending.

MENDOZA RAILWAY INAUGURATION.
II

The ascent from the river is as difficult as ever in Rosario; our party was too numerous for coaches, so we all walked up the hill through the public Plaza, and into the Hotel Universelle where apartments were provided for us all by Mr. White. We then took the tramway and proceeded to the Central Railway Station, which is much less crowded with goods and machinery than when we went over the place last November. All the heavy sugar machinery and agricultural machines have been forwarded by Mr. Fisher to their destination, and there was less accumulation even of Railway material, the new rolling stock received by the Central Argentine Railway having proved sufficient to empty those enormous deposits. Mr. White took us all to see the American Barkantine the E.J. McManeny, Captain Fennimore, who was actively engaged in discharging 12 new locomotives that had arrived from the Baldwin works Philadelphia for the Government Andine Railroad. Captain Fennimore (a relation of the renowned Fennimore Cooper) complained bitterly of a delay of 4 days he suffered in Buenos Aires owing to the Port Captain not having come off to visit his ship; he was 17 days in getting up from Buenos Aires to Rosario, and will probably take a month to discharge. The lifting of the huge pieces of machinery, and the chanting of the negro sailors as they heaved at the windlass, were great novelties for many of our party; a tall, powerful North American nigger sat on the top of the windlass and did nothing more than intone the singing, giving the first few lines, which invariably terminated in a desperate chorus about a darling yallow girl and fast heaving. Dr Civit, and Dr. Chavarria took much interest in the novel scene. Captain Fennimore said that but for the singing he would not get half as much work out of these men. The Barkantine is a beauty; she was built by the Captain himself in the very woods of Delaware; her cabins and fittings were on the style of a yacht, and we thought to ourselves how pleasantly one might make a voyage to old Cape Cottage in such a nice Bark, with such a remarkably intelligent captain, comfortable cabin, drawing room, piano, library and bath room; verily the American master to-day knows how to live, how to be comfortable, which is just as necessary as to know how to navigate.

We proceeded from the barkantine to the Elevator, which did an immense business this season and has, since we visited it last November, erected a large wheat deposit alongside, which was filled from floor to roof with sacks of wheat. To count the thousands of sacks piled on either side was a task far more difficult than to contemplate them and bring back to memory those days when every member of the Club Estrangeros in Buenos Aires held it as a fixed doctrine that this country would never do for agriculture, and never produce wheat. Error! Error! thy very name is Club Estrangero. Even to this very day, the few who don't see, won't see, and never can see the country progressing, hold their headquarters in its saloons. To ascend the Elevator with the Senators and Deputies was for me a work of supererogation, since I had been up to the top floor before and saw all that was to be seen. I therefore remained below chatting and smoking paper cigars with the Italian 'peon,' who told me the most wondrous tales of the high price of room rent, and the money made by his countrymen in building brick 'ranchos' in the vicinity. No men swim on the crest of the wave of R. Plate progress like the Italians; the piles of wheat sack I had just seen were for the most part belonging to Italian colonists at the Candelaria colony, and the wheat was tumbling in daily by every train as fresh as if the season was just in its infancy. Don José (all good Italian peones are called José) assured me that all his countrymen up there were prosperous, contented and happy; and except to make a trip home to see the Turin Exhibition, they cared nothing about crossing back to Italy. Mr. White and his friends came down from the elevator as fatigued as if they had been up to the top of Curumalan. They were all done up, and their clothes in a shocking state. I suggested they should go and see Mr. Henry Coffin's splendid American flour mill, the finest establishment of the kind in the whole country, but Mr. Moreno said the mill was shut and the millers had gone to Rosario, so we strolled back through the Central Argentine Railway deposits, viewing and inspecting everything, and I took a coach and started for Keenan's famed hotel to have a chat with Mr. Callan M.P. before dinner. Keenan's hotel was as crowded as if there was a fair in the town. New rooms and patios had been added since I was there last year with Mr. Langworthy and Mr Casey. Keenan's seems to be an institution, and well the proprietor merits the popularity which his hotel so justly enjoys. The best breakfast or dinner to be had in the town is at Keenan's.

We found Mr. Callan almost completely recovered from his wounds, but somewhat cut up by his long illness. I asked him his land impressions, and, with the readiness of a London barrister he handed me his contract and referred me to Article 17, which enjoined the most perfect silence as to his report. We chatted for an hour on the fortunes of Englishmen in the Plate, the sheepfarming business and all the large fortunes which it had yielded our countrymen. Mr. Callan has endured great hardships and seen the rough side of most things and men in the Plate, which is to be regretted, but for which he himself may be chiefly responsible, since, before leaving Buenos Ayres, President Roca offered him letters, orders and attentions which would have thrown him into other circles, and which he himself thought proper to decline. To our mind, there is not much chance of any great Irish or English emigration to Santa Fe for the Gran Chaco from his trip, and perhaps so best, as we adhere to our conviction that in those lands the Italian is far and away superior as a colonist to any of our people, and twenty years hence the whole Chaco will be Italian or Guarani.

Dinner was served at six sharp at the Universelle, where Mr. White provided everything for his guests.

Editors are supposed to be always ready with after-dinner speeches, and, to escape a compromise and an uproar, we proposed Mr. White's health, coupling with his name two maté cups and two 'bombillas' and a pound of Paraguayan sugar for the 'viaje.' Luckily, there was not much time for toasting, and we hurried in carriages from the hotel to the railway station, to catch the 7.30 p.m. special train that started for Mendoza.

At the station we were enveloped in friends. Here we were joined by Mr. and Mrs Parish, son and daughter and governess; Mr and Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Barker, of London (wife of the talented Secretary of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway); Mr Galwey, Manager of Montevidean Water Works; Mr Livesey, of London, Mr. Graham, Vice-Manager of the Central Argentine Railway, and Mr. Robinson, Traffic Manager, both capital fellows who provided me with a bed in their own waggon, and to whose kind attentions throughout the trip I am greatly indebted; Mr Fisher may well be proud of his able lieutenants; under their direction nothing can go wrong. The waggon held 6 catres, and Mr Tedin, the talented Director of the Tucuman Railway, also slept in this waggon. We met Mr Sheehan, of Cañada de Gomez, who gave us interesting particulars of how things were going on up there; Mr Moreno and Mr Catlin slept in the grand saloon; in fact although the party was very numerous all had comfortable sleeping accommodations; the ladies had a splendid sleeping car all to themselves, but we, for our part, must confess that it requires the long experience of a railway guard to sleep in a train going at full speed; the waggon rocked so hard that I thought the 'catre' with bed and bedding would come down. Rocked in the 'catre' of the railway car I lay me down in peace to sleep, and at day-break we reached a little station, called General Cabrera, where we all got hot, salty coffee, which seemed even worse than an emetic. Luckily Mr Chavarria brought 'maté' arrangements, and we held hard to 'maté amargo' until we reached Rio Cuarto where a grand breakfast was served with fresh graper and peaches, that made us all realize we had changed skies since we left Buenos Aires.

THE ROSARIO PORT.

The following Report upon the actual state of the surveys for the Rosario Port Works, will be found of considerable interest.

Civil Engineers' Department, May 27, 1884.

To H. E. the Minister of the Interior, Dr. Don. Bernardo Irigoyen.

In conformity with Y.E.'s request, I have the honour to forward a report of the actual state and progress of the surveys that are being carried on in the port of Rosario, and of the probable time yet required to bring them to a conclusion.

The surveys are being pushed ahead with all the zeal and activity that the magnitude and importance of the work require and, as far as local circumstances and the level of the waters in the Parana allow.

Four engineers of this department are constantly and assiduously engaged in these surveys, and three of them have been occupied on the ground itself in collecting details of the properties which lie, more or less, in the zone of the projected works, and will therefore have to be expropriated. This detailed work has taken time to prepare, as well as the determining the situation, direction and depth of the canals and transverse sections of the Parana river, fixing the position of the islands and banks, the changes of level of the river, the strength of the currents in different points at high water, and the topography and levelling of the shore from the Graneros to the station of the Western Santa Fe Railway. The other engineer has been almost exclusively engaged arranging and conveying to paper the results of these surveys, a work which has been carried out with zeal, and has several times occupied part of the night.

All these operations are about being concluded, with the exception of the borings that are to be carried on at different points of the bed of the river, to ascertain, in a fixed and exact manner the nature of the river's bottom at different depths, at the points where the foundation for the dikes and walls of the docks are to be built, a knowledge of the changes in the currents at low water is also required, but in order to carry on this operation it is absolutely necessary that the waters should have reached their lowest level, which, I hope, may be shortly, seeing that the waters are now falling very rapidly, and if they continue to do so in the same proportion, I confidently hope that in the course of next month all the surveying operations will have been definitively concluded, and it will then be possible to consider the project and estimates, a work which, in view of its importance, will require some time, but, perhaps, not so much as has been devoted to the surveys on the spot.

Hoping that this report may meet Y.E. wishes,

I have the honour to be,
&c., &c.,
John Pirovano.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE CLUB CONCORDIA.

The Literary Society's entertainment on Wednesday last was a great success, and the committee have evidently made a wise selection in securing the services of Mr. Denstone, who, we believe, is the first professional gentleman who has hitherto conducted any performance.

The overture, "Poet et Paysan," was well rendered by Professor Loose, after which came Mr. Denstone's "Elocutionary Trilogy," consisting of—

"Seven Ages of Man"—Shakespeare.
"The Book"—Tennyson.
"Excelsior"—Longfellow.

Given in a masterly and finished style.

The Misses Quade executed, with admirable expression, a duet upon the pianoforte. These young ladies were loudly encored, when they graciously repeated the piece. "A Young Lady Amateur," then recited Adelaide Proctor's lyric poem, "The Faithful Soul," delivered with clearness and expression. The reciter was much applauded, and presented with a magnificent bouquet on leaving the stage.

After this recitation, Mr. J. D. Martin sang "Under the British Flag," which was well received. Mr. Martin was obliged to repeat the song.

Mr. Denstone followed with another recitation, "The Revenge"—Tennyson Delivered with much power and strength of expression.

The first part of the entertainment concluded with a further duet by the Misses Quade, which was highly appreciated and duly applauded.

PART II.

Commenced with the overture, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," rendered with taste by Professor Loose.

Mr. Martin then sang "The Frenchman," and being encored, gave also "On the Sly."

After this came the screaming farce entitled "A Ticket of Leave," in which Mr. Denstone and several very proficient amateurs greatly amused the audience. The piece had evidently been well rehearsed, the parts were suited to the several performers, and the interest was fully sustained throughout. The fun was never allowed to flag, a matter of much importance in the rendering of a farce.

As the curtain fell, the young lady whose graceful presence gave a charm to the performance was presented with a beautiful basket of the choicest flowers, amidst the enthusiastic plaudits of the audience.

This ended one of the most pleasant evenings the society has ever yet proffered its members.

Although the entertainment may not have been so pretentious as others given in past seasons, it had the merit of being varied, pleasant and complete, well managed throughout, with laudable attention to punctuality and detail. The society may be congratulated on the unqualified success of this, its first entertainment of the season.

The Congo's Mails.

London, May 3rd

The House of Lords had a brief sitting yesterday, and transacted no public business of importance.

In the House of Commons, Sir M. Hicks-Beach gave notice of a resolution asking the House to express regret at finding that the course pursued by the Government has not tended to promote the success of General Gordon's mission, and that even such steps as may be necessary to secure his personal safety are still delayed. Mr Gladstone's resolution taking until the end of June morning sittings on Tuesdays and Fridays was, after some opposition, carried by 216 to 103. Mr Raikes called attention to the circumstances connected with the withdrawal of the petition against the return of the two members for the city of Hereford in 1880. The Cattle Diseases Bill passed through Committee.

Our Paris Correspondent states that, according to the Telégrapho, M. Waddington's instructions with regard to the Conference are extremely conciliatory. France renounces all thought of reviving the condominium, and does not ask that any date should be fixed for the evacuation of Egypt by the British troops; but in order to hasten the proper moment for that evacuation she opposes the dissolution of the Egyptian army, and demands, on the contrary, its reorganization. M. Waddington will also ask for certain guarantees against the exclusive employment of English functionaries in the Egyptian Administration. Our Correspondent thinks that other points will be raised presenting still greater difficulties.

A despatch from Constantinople states that the Porte is very desirous that the Conference should be held there.

Yesterday the Marquis Tseng presented his letter of recall to M. Grévy. It is stated that when the French Chamber meets a fresh credit of 40,000,000 francs will be asked for on account of the Tonquin expedition.

Our Correspondent in Madrid says that little importance is attributed there to the movements of the Republican bands in the provinces along the Pyrenean frontier. Two out of six of the bands have been dispersed, and their chiefs killed or made prisoners. We learn from Paris that twelve Spanish insurgents, including two officers, have crossed the frontier into France and will be interned at Angouleme.

The Select Committee of the Parks Railway Bill reassembled yesterday, Colonel Stanley in the chair. Mr Tomlinson, C.E., resident engineer of the Metropolitan Company, and other witnesses gave evidence on the part of the promoters of the scheme.

Mr. Herbert Gladstone, M.P., presided last evening at a crowded meeting at Chiswick in support of the candidature of Mr Caine, M.P., for the county of Middlesex. A resolution of approval was passed by an overwhelming majority as well as one expressing confidence in the Government.

Professor Calderwood, who was asked by a deputation to offer himself as a Liberal candidate for Edinburgh, has declined, assigning as his reason that his duty is to abide by the University in the discharge of his professional work.

At a meeting of the Linlithgow County Conservative Association at Linlithgow last evening Mr. Henry W. Hope, of Luffness, was unanimously adopted as the Conservative candidate for the county at the next general election.

Sir James M'Garel-Hogg, M.P., presided at yesterday's meeting of the Metropolitan Board of Works, at which the London Government Bill was brought under consideration. After much discussion a resolution was carried expressing an opinion that no measure for reforming the local administration of the metropolis would be satisfactory and effective, which did not provide for the retention of self-local government in the several parishes or districts, each local authority being in federal connection with a central authority having jurisdiction over all those matters of municipal government which pertain to the capital as a whole.

An influential deputation yesterday waited on the Directors of the Great Northern Railway, and on behalf of the Artisans, Labourers and General Dwellings Company, called attention to the high rate of the third-class fares, which, it was contended, prevented the working classes from taking advantage of the improved dwellings now being erected for their use. Lord Colville, the chairman, promised that the subject should receive careful consideration.

Mr. Abingdon's Busybody won the One Thousand Guineas, Sir J. Willoughby's Queen Adelaide being second, and Lord Bradford's Whitelock third. The other results of yesterday's racing at Newmarket includes the following:—The Newmarket Stakes, Mr. W. J. Legh's Campanile; Selling Plate, Sir G. Arthur's Priscilla; Fourth Welter Handicap Plate; Lord Zetland's Toastmaster; Two-Year Selling Stakes, Duke of St. Alban's Clonmel; Two-Year Old Stakes, Mr. C. C. Lefevre's Radieuse.

Lord Coleridge, with a special jury, yesterday resumed the hearing of the action brought by the Central News against the Eastern Telegraph and Exchange Companies. Further evidence for the defendants was given respecting the despatch of messages announcing the victory of Tel-el-Kebir. The case will be continued to-day, and then adjourned until Tuesday, when the defense will have closed.

The directors of the Oriental Bank Corporation announce that they have felt compelled to close the doors of the bank and its branches.

In the Stock Markets yesterday Mexican Government bonds fell to 21 on the report of the failure of a bank in Mexico, closing at 21½-⅝. Excepting this and a fall in Spanish bonds the foreign market was steady at an advance, especially for Greek stocks. North British Railway stock receded ⅜ per cent. There was a very active demand for home railway preference and debenture stocks at a rise of 1 per cent. Consols declined to 101 7/16, 9/16 for money. For the June account the quotation was 101½, 9/16. American railway securities showed a marked recovery, prices leaving off at the best points. Denver bonds rose to 65, 66. Grand Trunk of Canada 1st Preference declined 1½, and Mexican Railway stock ½ to 2½ per cent. The Bank of England received £47,000 in gold.

IRELAND.

Dublin May 2nd.

A case, arising out of the recent attack on Jews in this city was heard at Limerick petty sessions to-day. A man named John Murphy was summoned for assault on Jacob Baron, a Jew, on the 25th. of March, by throwing stones and otherwise assaulting him. The prosecutor was surrounded by a mob, and was obliged to run into a house for protection. Mr. Dundon, solicitor, who was engaged in a former case, said he believed this dispute had not its origin from any religious feeling between the people and the Jews, but the fact of their being Jews was taken advantage of by a few individuals to rob them of their property. The police applied to have a heavy penalty imposed in the case in order to deter others from committing similar acts. The magistrate said that every protection would be given to the Jews, and they sentenced the accused to two months' imprisoment with hard labour.

Last night Mr. Thomas Cummins, provision dealer, residing at 8, North King-street, came upon an old rusty bayonet hidden away underneath the stairs of the house mentioned. He brought the "find" to Green-street Police-station and surrendered it to the authorities. The neighbourhood was one of the strongest Fenian centres during 1867 and subsequently, and it is supposed that the weapon was hidden away by its owner.

In the Landed Estates Court to-day a portion of an estate near Fermoy, County Cork, yielding a net profit rent of 416*l.* 7s. 3d., was offered for sale. There being no bidding after 4,900*l.*, Judge Flanagan remarked that it was purchased in that court for 7,300*l.*, and despite the depreciation in the value of land he would not sell at the sum offered. There being no further advance the sale was adjourned.

A notice of motion was handed in in the Cork Corporation to-day in view of the appointment of a Royal Comission on the Irish Queen's Colleges claiming the preservation to Cork of its existing rights as a University centre, without pronouncing on the question of what shape the administration of the existing grants ought ultimately to take.

THE STOCK MARKETS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

Those who regard our provincial Stock Exchanges as simply local markets for the circulation of local securities misjudge their position greatly. Glasgow and Edinburgh, Manchester, Liverpool, and Dublin do, it is true, afford facilities for local investments which London does not afford, but there do much more than this, for they are many classes of securities which London has never been induced to take up, or only to take up with an altogether lukewarm advocacy, and they have consequently found a home in the provinces. Beyond this, there are many securities well known and actively dealt in in London which are powerfully influenced from the North, and on various occasions Canadian railways, as an instance in point, have been mainly under the spell of the provincial markets. On one occasion Glasgow was instrumental in driving up Grand Trunk ordinary stock to 50, from whence it has quickly dropped back to 20; and such powers, whether exercised for good or for ill, cannot be lighty passed over. Beyond the five provincial markets we have named, there are many others, including, in England, Birmingham, Sheffield, Newcastle, Hull, Leeds, and Bristol; in Scotland, Dundee and Aberdeen; and in Ireland, Belfast, all of which have their own tastes and peculiarities, while they all have extensive dealings with Capel Court. Let us see what those tastes and peculiarities are.

Of all the provincial Stock Exchanges, we must assign to Glasgow the palm both in the volume of business passing and the speculative ardour of those who operate therein. The Scotch are great gamblers, and probably the 128 members of the Glasgow market, in spite of their recent comparative quiet, have more business passing through their hands than all the other Scotch brokers put together. For the Scotch railway ordinary stocks Glasgow is certainly the best centre, and, naturally enough, we find a number of Northern securities represented there. For such local investments, however, Edinburgh is often a better market, and apart from the Scotch oil companies and a few other exceptions, Glasgow is more absorbed by Canadian and American securities, by Mexican Railway, by Spanish mines, and other general investments, many of them well-known here—indeed, there is much business transacted in London representing adjustments with Glasgow.

Edinburgh has its own strongly-marked individuality. Its fifty members do some general buisiness, but it has always been the home of the Scotch bank and the Scotch insurance shareholders. And it is to be remembered that both these banks and these insurance companies represent some of the most important and prosperous joint stock institutions in the kingdom, carrying on a business far outside the limits of Scotland. The Edinburgh market has certainly grown latterly. After taking up the "property companies, and failing lamentably, it has embarked actively in Australasian and Canadian land and mortgage companies as well as in the American cattle ranche business, and the Scotch oil companies. Some even of the Land and Mortgage Companies quoted in London find in Edinburgh a more congenial soil, while there are others unknown in London. At present these investments are standing well, and Edinburgh feels the existing stagnation less than many other centres.

Dundee and Aberdeen, Dundee especially, have both taken the ranche fever, and are well-known gambling centres. Aberdeen, too, is the market for a number of North of Scotland undertakings of importance, while Dundee has its shipping interests. All the Scotch markets have from time to time dabbled in American mines, and have invariably suffered in proportion.

Next to Glasgow, Manchester is probably the most important provincial market. Manchester, like Glasgow, carries on an active business in general investments, deals in many railway preference stocks, and and in many local companies of first-class magnitude. London attempts to quote sundry Yorkshire, Durham and other iron and coal companies; but who would think of dealing here? Manchester, on the other hand, is a very good market in these securities, and the seventy or more members of the Manchester Exchange and the outside brokers carry on an important business. Many Manchester men, too, are interested in the Lancashire Sharebrokers' Association which is principally associated with mining companies.

The Liverpool Stock Exchange has a list of members rivaling Glasgow in numbers, but not in activity. Indeed Liverpool business hardly appears to have expanded of late years as much as Manchester. London has always been a very lifeless market for insurance companies; while Liverpool, on the contrary, deals a good deal both in marine and fire and life companies. Then again, Liverpool is largely interested in the great steamship companies, in some Chilian railways, and in a fair number of provincial and local undertakings. Liverpool, too, is partial to Great North of Scotland Railway stock, and years ago operated a good deal in continental railways.

Sheffield, as a Stock Exchange, grew suddenly in notoriety in 1872-3, when dozens of Yorkshire ironmasters, seeing their opportunity, converted into public companiss. It is but natural, therefore, that Sheffield should be a less active market now than it was then. Still, the Sheffield companies are many of them powerful institutions, and, next to Birmingham, Sheffield is the chief market for the wagon and railway carriage companies. There are over thirty members of the Sheffield Exchange. Leeds is a stagnant and antiquated market, and was more important years ago than it is now. Hull and Newcastle are interested in a number of important local stocks.

Birmingham has always been a much smaller market than it ought to be, and its business far more restricted than many a less important centre. The twenty or thirty transactions a week recorded in the Birmingham official list appears ridiculous, having regard to the numerous important companies in the neighbourhood, and it would seem that much of its business has passed to other centres for want of needful reforms. The Midland counties banks, are, however, fairly represented in Birmingham, and canals, wagon companies, metal and manufacturing companies, and a large number of Midland undertaking are, at any rates quoted in Birmingham. There are about twenty members of the Birmingham Stock Exchange.

Bristol is another lifeless Exchange, which has gone down rather than up in the past twenty or thirty years. Its interests are mainly in the West of England and South Wales.

Across the Irish Channel, Dublin has always been a fairly active Stock Exchange. The Bank of Ireland keeps a separate register for the British and Indian Funds, and Irish companies of most kinds find in Dublin their principal market. But beyond this, Dublin is addicted to a few foreign stocks, as well as American and Canadian securities, to London and Westminster, and Standard of South Africa Bank shares. Dublin, curiously enough, deals in all debenture stocks "ex" accrued dividend to date, in the same way as London deals in Exchequer bills. In Belfast a number of important Ulster companies are represented, but there, as yet, no Stock Exchange is established.

This brief summary has not taken into account the numbers of stockbrokers to be found in most important towns, but has dealt more with those centres of sufficient magnitude to constitute themselves markets for public securities. It is certain that these provincial centres monopolise many highly important and lucrative investments, while they constitute the most important feeders to the London Stock Exchange.—Economist.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our General Post Office is most woefully behind the age. At 9 a.m. yesterday morning we saw some two score plethoric mail bags, all marked "From London to Buenos Aires per French Packet," wheeled up the passenger mole, yet no mails were delivered till late in the afternoon. This is really worse than ridiculous in a great commercial city. The P. M. G., and his clerks are not to be blamed. Congress leaves this great department shorthanded, "et hinc illæ lachrimæ." On foreign mail (in or out) days at least, extra sorting clerks should be put on.

The Colon Theatre remained closed on Thursday night. There is a faint hope that Madlle Theodorini may be able to sing again to-night or to-morrow.

Captain Pauli, R.N., late British Consul here, we regret to announce, died at Sussex on 28 April last.

Havas patriotically calls St. Gatien "the French horse." This is an error, first, because, properly speaking, there is no such thing as a French race-horse, all the best racers on that soil, or anywhere else, being of purely English breeds; and next, the horse in question belongs to Major Brace of the Guards, and he is no Frenchman. A French race-horse is as much a euphonical expression as "Italy" was once, according to Metternich, a geographical one. Another article which Gaul has yet to produce is a jockey. This fact reminds us that there is a very good opening on the Argentine Turf just now for a few British emigrants of this class, as a good deal of the riding at recent race meetings was by no means "up to the knocker."

The R.M.S. Tamar will sail to-morrow. The mail bags will close at noon. This steamer takes home a dozen Argentine ostriches for the Duke of Norfolk's demesnes.

We feel great pleasure in saluting Mr. Goodhall of Bahia Blanca, who is in town on a flying visit. He reports the Bay as flourishing in every way, and getting bigger day by day. (Notihng rhymic intended).

Mr. Cassels tried his Electric Light again in the Plaza on Thursday night, and with great success. There were only four lights, at the top of the pillar, but they shone so brilliantly that one could read a newspaper almost in any corner of the Plaza.

The Bootmakers' Society give a ball and supper to-night. All the 'upper' part of the craft will be present, and the feast of reason and the flow of sole is expected to 'last' till daylight doth appear.

A subscriber who visited Mr. Rasina's bird shop at 248 Calle Cuyo the other day informs us that it is more a menagerie than a bird shop, and well worth a visit. At the back of the house, for a square deep, there is a "Zoo" far superior to the Palermo affair, with lions, tigers, tiger-cats, etc., and a wonderful variety of birds. The proprietor is most courteous, and speaks fluently French, Spanish, Italian, and what he is pleased to call English.

The Italians here are preparing to celebrate the second anniversary of Garibaldi's death.

Mr, Cæsar Bononino, the well-known piano teacher, will start this day week for the United States and Paris, and will complete his musical studies in the Conservatoire in the French capital.

The Nacional reports that one of the oldest haberdashers in the city has fled for parts unknown.

We hear from Patagones that they had a terrific Nor-Wester there lately. The National steamer Neuquen was in the thick of it, as she was out with two "chatas" getting "pedragulla" for the Pomona. One chata sank and the other was driven on shore. After eight days' "temporal" the commander of the Neuquen, Lieut. J. Wilson, managed to get the sunken chata afloat; but when he arrived in Patagones the first thing he received was a note from the senior officer in command ordering him under arrest on board his own vessel. This is certainly a rather novel way of rewarding an officer for his skill and pluck in saving his vessel and the chata.

Dear Sirs,
I have much pleasure in stating that I cured all my flocks this season with the "Golden Leaf Extract" and found the result highly satisfactory, and in future do not intend to use any other dip.
After first using the "Golden Leaf," I found it such a perfect cure for Scab that I recommended it to several of my neighbours who have all proved it equally good.
Yours truly
W. R. GRANT.

SHEEP DIP
NICOTINE
From the finest selected Virginia Tobacco Leaf.
FREE FROM POISON

THIS EXCELS ALL OTHER SHEEP DIPS.
It is uniform in strength, evenly dissolved free from lumps.
After a trial of ALL the New Dips, the highest testimony declares NICOTINE to be the best for both Sheep and Wool.

THIS EXCELS ALL OTHER NICOTINE.
No other is absolutely pure.
Being prepared solely for Sheep Dip, the other Natural Ingredients in it are only such as assist in the cure.
It is the only Dip that contains the highest possible per-centage of Nicotine.

ITS EFFECTS ARE MARVELLOUS.
It Increases the Weight of Wool.
It Improves the Quality of the Wool.
It Strengthens the Sheep and Increases their Vigour and Size.
It will Prevent and Eradicate Scab and other Skin Diseases.
It Cures Internal Diseases.

IT IS THE MOST ECONOMICAL.
It is the Cheapest in proportion to its strength.
It cures from 100 to 200 per cent more Sheep than any other Dip for the same outlay.
It has given 400 per cent profit on its cost, in Wool alone.

DIRECTIONS.—Put 1 Gallon to from 150 to 200 Gallons of Water. It can be used with Cold or Hot Water, but Warm Water makes all cures more effective.

River Plate Testimony

"We have bought the "X L" Sheep Dip (Nicotine) in large quantities, and have no hesitation in saying that of all Sheep Dips Nicotine has proved the most necessary and effective for cure. It has saved our Sheep and increased our Wool far beyond any other Dip. Indeed, we have not failed to use it for years, and dare not be without it."

(Twenty Years' Experience.)—"No Sheep Dip is so economical nor gives so little trouble nor has any other in my long experience proved so effective."

"Tobacco Extract has been used on my Sheep-farm for years, and always with success. The Wool is heavier per fleece and better in quality by its use, and the Sheep are healthier and stronger, and fetch better prices than they would if we had not used it. A pure and reliable Extract (such as the "X L" brand) appears to be just what is wanted."

"Nicotine is undoubtedly the best Sheep Dip for Scab. We have used it freely and regularly for several years, and with great success. The "X L" brand is better mixed and more uniform in strength than any other that we have either seen or used."

Australian Testimony.

From a Farm with 80,000 Sheep. Fifteen Years' Experience. "Nothing surpasses Tobacco Extract. We grow our own Tobacco to get it pure, and to be certain of having it at hand when we want it. But a reliable Extract (such as the "X L" brand) would be a saving of much trouble, anxiety, and expense."

Cape Report.

"We have formerly sold the Glycerine, or M'Dougall's Dip, but as the "X L" Tobacco Extract appears to be both cheaper and better, we are now selling it in preference."

READ THE ANALYSIS—
Liverpool, 9th November 1882.
"I hereby certify that I have examined samples of the "X L Nicotine Sheep Dip" sent me, and find it to contain:—

Nicotine..............	9·30 o/o
Extractive and other Organic Matter.....	36·56 o/o
Salts of Lime, Potass..	19·92 o/o
Water.................	34·22 o/o
	100·00 o/o

"This Sheep Dip has evidently been prepared from Tobacco of good quality, as is shown by the large proportion of Nicotine and the character of the extractive matters. It mixes readily with water, and appears to me to be a preparation of even, reliable character, well suited in every way for use as a good Sheep Dip."

A CHRONIC COUGH cannot be cured by means of a simple lubrication of the irritated throat. To insure a permanent cure the medicine used must contain some soothing and healing ingredients, which may be readily absorbed by the effected parts—the lungs; with all their healing properties unimpaired.
Experience has proved that the Pectoral of Anacahuita, consisting of an extract obtained from a renowned medicinal tree of Mexico, is full of the very properties required, and is besides easily absorbed by the organs of respiration.

Ship-brokers report a little more enquiry for small sailing vessels to load saladero produce up rivers. There is no change in the situation for steamers or vessels in this port.

The head of the National Bank branch in Tucuman has advised the Board here of the expediency of starting two agencies in that province, in the small towns of Medina and Monteros.

There is not a word of truth in the news published this morning with regard to the National Mortgage Bill. Having made enquiries in the matter we are requested to contradict all these false statements "in toto." The publication of misleading information of this character is much to be deplored.

Letters from London under date May 3rd announce that Messrs Murrietta were offering £385,000 5 o/o bonds, to make the Northern Colonies Railway of Santa Fé. Our correspondent states "they are issued at 80½," and I suppose, will be placed.

The market ruled firm during afterhours; shares advanced from 151¾ to 152¾, buyers for the end of the month. About two thousand shares were sold for June at 154. Small operations were effected in Cedulas; E sold at 89½-⅝ for to-morrow and 89¾ for June. F sold at 85¼; the market closing with buyer.

The mail brings the following important advices from Rio:—

"Rio de Janeiro, May 24th, 1884

"The most notable feature in the town is the progress made in the building of the New Exchange, which, without doubt, will be the finest edifice in the city and the largest of its class in South America. It ought to be finished at the end of the year; it is built on borrowed capital, say some £50,000 so far at 8 o/o; it is considered it may prove unnecessary large and too much expense for the commercial body. The streets are thronged and busy, and the show of goods profuse; the centre of the city appears like one immense bazaar, shop after shop in the narrow streets following each other without any interruption like in your city, and the activity continues until 9 o'clock in the evening. There has been a fall in coffee, owing to accumulation of stocks and failures in New York and no demand for Europe, but the article now appears steadier. The Emancipation question, it is thought, will be shelved for the session. Financial matters are depressed; exchange has fallen to 20-20⅛d bank, commercial 20 3/16 to 20 5/16, and sellers of sovereigns ask 12$000. Brazilian gold is a thing of the past, and the quantity of sovereigns held small, perhaps the Bank of Brazil does not hold more than £10,000 gold. Exchange completely governs the market, and the rate will no doubt be fairly maintained by increased production. Par value of Brazilian gold was 8$889 to the sovereign, now you see the paper value is 12$000 to the sovereign. The former gave an exchange of 27d, the latter 20d. There will be much to watch now in the progress of the two countries. The one with its Imperial Government and burning slave question, and the other with its republican license and continual representative changes. In both Capitals are being erected new Bolsas, and it is to be hoped that from the date of their completion fresh progress will mark the history of both countries. The 200$000 of the Bank of Brazil are quoted 290$ equal to 145$ Banco Nacional. You will no doubt have received news yesterday that the British Government had decided to send more troops to the Soudan."

Mr. White, C.E., Chief of the National Department of Engineers, arrived back this morning with his guests from the Inauguration of the Mendoza Railway; Senators, Deputies, editors, engineers and reporters, all request us to thank him for his great attention during the trip, nothing could surpass the excellence of his arrangements.

Mr. Barker, Secretary of Buenos Aires Great Southern Railway left yesterday for Rosario, where a special train awaits him to take him to Mendoza, Mrs Barker having taken suddenly ill up there, which has caused the delay of Mr. and Mrs. Parish who did not arrive this morning.

Several estancieros from the north of Santa Fe arrived this morning from Rosario. They report the camps splendid. Lands on the Javier, 40 leagues north of the city of Santa Fe, are selling at 10,000 national dollars per league, and very hard to get at that price, as the owners ask 15 and 16,000 m/n per league. The whole country up there is growing very fast, novillos selling at 12 national dollars. Ramayon's estancia, 32 square leagues and 45,000 head of cattle, the largest property about. The colonies are springing up on all sides, and the year has been one of the most remarkable prosperity up there. The cattle, as a rule, give an increase of 35 to 40 per cent.

All the merchants in San Luis have raised a just howl of indignation against the faulty management of the Andine Railway for the way in which their goods are detained. So slow is the delivery that in many cases the dates for payment of the goods have fallen due, before they have received their merchandise. The merchants intend calling a meeting with the object of laying their grievances before Congress.

An order was issued yesterday for the payment of 1,000 nacionales to the Prefecto Maritimo for the object of erecting lighthouses along the Argentine Coast of the Upper Uruguay.

Tenders have been called for the putting up of a wharf, 100 lineal meters in extent, on the Lujan River, facing the Marine Workshops. The tenders will be opened on the 5th of June at the office of the Suk-Secretary of Marine.

The arrivals at the Boca yesterday were:—Austrian barque Slavia in ballast and 17 coasting vessels. The departures were:—Italian barque Aste Guiseppe, English barque Virginia L. Stafford, and some coasting craft for river ports. Late yesterday evening an English barque, consigned to Messrs. Drysdale & Co., left the Boca.

The Nord America did not arrive here yesterday, owing to the dense fog she was unable to get off from Montevideo till yesterday morning. She was expected in port to-day.

Four engineers are at present making surveys in the port of Rosario from the grain deposits to the station of the Casado Railway. A detailed report has been drawn up giving the position, depth and direction of all the channels of the river, of the position and size of the banks and of the water levels. These preliminary works will soon be completed. In August the port works will be in full activity. When these works are finished Rosario will boast of the finest port in the Republic and will completely eclipse the Riachuelo. The Government should now begin to dredge the channel at Martin Garcia, a job that would entail little expense or work, and would be welcomed by all steamer agents and masters of sailing vessels. At present delays are frequent when the Parana falls.

Messrs. Bemberg, Heimendahl & Co.'s great railway project has been published in pamphlet form. We have already given the general out-lines of the proposal. The latest news in the market is that the Legislature and Provincial Government will throw out all railway proposals, on the ground that the greatest economy must henceforward be observed in the Treasury. These plans of economy are most satisfactory, if carried out, but the Western Railway Bill shews that the spirit is not so willing as stated. The projected railways must be made; every inhabitant in the Province clamors for same, and it little matters whether the Government or private enterprise carry out the scheme, as long as it is done.

We take the following extracts from the report of the Minister of Agriculture of Brazil:

"The railways in traffic and in construction have the total of 8,003 kilometers, viz:—
In traffic........ 5,609 kil.
In construction .. 2,402
Those belonging to the State, and in mos part constructed administratively, measure 2,260 kilometers, viz:—
In traffic........ 1,502 kil.
In construction... 758
Those constructed or in construction under State guarantees authorized by the law of September 24th, 1873, measure 1,725 kilometres, viz:—
In traffic........ 1,157 kil.
In construction... 567
And those under the laws of September 12th, 1855, August 26th, 1877, September 10th, 1878, and October 21st, 1882, measure 1,280 kilometers, viz:—
In traffic........ 388 kil.
In construction .. 892
Guaranteed railways—

	Capital.	Interest.
	Reis.	Reis.
With fixed capital...	166,865:304	11,437:731
With unfixed capital	73,655:556	4,419:333
Probably guaranteed	15,300:000	918:000
	255,820:860	16,775:064

These figures show:—1st, that much has yet to be done to carry out what has been undertaken under the direct administration of the State and under its responsibility for guarantees of interest; 2nd, that the fixed and unfixed liabilities have risen to a point which imposes on us the greatest produce in augmenting them.—We have, in fact, 758 kilometers in construction for the State and 1,460 with its guarantee, and there are various other lines awaiting approval of their surveys that will raise to over 3,000 kilometers those in construction and surveyed for the State or upon its responsibility. In such circumstances, if we cease for some time to concede further guarantees, which in strictness cannot be considered nominal, it cannot be said that we are condemning ourselves to immovability in a branch of improvements from which so much is to be hoped for our prosperity."

A rather unpleasant rumor was rampant this morning in the National Bank Share market; the news was traced to the columns of a morning colleague, and although the tenor of same did not in the least alarm the bulls it sufficed to make money lenders shiver. The phantom that beared the market this morning is the new National Mortgage Bank Bill; according to the well-informed colleague the capital of 20 millions will be issued one half in bonds of the Government and the remainder in shares to bearer. This announcement burst like a bomb-shell, and all the bears produced the paper and the paragraph, frightened the market into a panic, and down went the stock from 153 to 150¾; here began the uphill work and after violent fluctuations the stock closed at 151¾; over 3,000 shares were sold for to-morrow. Operations for the end of June embraced 2,600 shares; the market opened at 154 and closed at 153. A few changed hands for cash at 153-151 and 151¾. The ring was thronged and the excitement was feverish all morning, and although the bears gained a partial success they are as yet far from winning the day. The speculative rumor this morning frightened the money market and thus affected the situation of the bulls; some outsiders also got frightened and ordered their brokers to sell out immediately. The market closed with an undecided feeling with a wavering aspect.

The news affected the Scrip also and rates fell to 59½, closing at 60. Two hundred and fifty were sold at these rates for to-morrow. The market ruled exceedingly dull and flat. The operations in Certificates which must be liquidated to-morrow are large.

The Cedula market continues dull. Fifty six thousand Series E were sold cash and for to-morrow at 89⅝-⅞. Twelve thousand Series F were sold at 85¾. A larger issue of Series F is expected next week, as some large mortgage operations are reported in the Bolsa on camp property.

Small operations in exchange were reported this morning at 47½. Bills are scarce. The Provincial Bank keeps up the rate. Operations on Montevideo reported at 2¼; more offering. The money market out-side shews no change; discounts are easy at 6½. Money is offered on the Bolsa, but takers must pay higher rates.

The lull in the land business continues, although the maps hung on the walls of the Bolsa are always surrounded by a crowd of landowners and brokers. But there is much more doing in this line than the public are aware of; several important transactions are being arranged and will be completed next week. There are buyers of large tracts in the market for foreign account. One broker has sold nine leagues this week and is drawing up documents for the sale of seven more. This shows that there is some life left in the business.

The Mendoza party returned to-day after a most pleasant excursion. All return charmed with Mendoza and its prospects. In July the trains will begin to run from Rosario to the terminus at the foot of the Andes. Locomotives and more rolling-stock are expected next month from Europe and the States.

The sale of a league of land in the district of 9 de Julio is announced at $325,000 %. Seller, Mr. F. Wright; buyer, Mr. Carabassa. The purchaser has closed on a great bargain.

Telegrams from London giving quotations of Argentine quotations shew a slight shrinkage in price. Hard dollars are 1 to 2 lower than last fortnight.

The Umberto 1º passed St. Vincent yesterday, on route for Italy, with a crowd of River Plate passenger who go to visit the Turin exhibition.

A Derangement of the Liver
THE CAUSE OF DISEASE IN THE STOMACH, KIDNEYS, AND Nervous System.

Below will be found a brief summary of a Lecture upon the Liver, delivered before the Eclectic College of Medecine, by

Dr. J. Haydock

The Liver has been known as the great blood-maker and blood-purifier of the circulation. From its size and spongy structure, it plays a most important part in the animal economy, as regards assimilation and nutrition. Food taken in the mouth and acted upon by the digestive organs of the stomach is converted into Glucose and Peptone, and in these forms enters the Portal vein. Here, by the action of the liver, these substances are converted into a form of sugar and pass out of the liver by a large vein, called the Hepatic vain, into the great circulation. The new material now formed serves two purposes: viz: the maintenance of heat in the body and assisting in the cell growth of the system.
Dr. Murchison says "The composition of bile and its secretion is very complex. It is constantly being secreted by the liver, and, increasing suddenly before eating, gradually decreases as soon as the appetite is satisfied and feeding ceases." Now, if this most important organ of the body becomes torpid, or the passage of bile interfered with, emaciation and disease ensue. I note eight marked peculiarities that now occur, and which we all know of:—
1. The patient complains of a feeling of weight and fullness of the stomach.
2. Distension of the bowels by wind.
3. Heartburn.
4. A feelingof weariness, pains in the limbs and great sleepiness after meals.
5. A bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning, and furred tongue.
6. Constipation, with an occasional attack of diarrhœa.
7. Headache in front of head.
8. Depression of spirits and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
All of the above symptoms go to show functional derangement of the liver; and now comes the great importance of any error made as to the condition of the patient. He should immediately provide himself with a Liver Stimulant, the most common form of which is a Pill. Daily experience shows that this, when the Pill is compounded properly, is the readiest mode of inciting and promoting the action of the Liver, and can be almost always relied on. I have devoted many years of my life, as many of you now before me know, to compounding a Pill that will act readily and systematically as a Bilious remedy. I do not believe in great purgatives, and therefore have made a Pill, one of which is an active and thorough dose. I have called it

Dr. Haydock's New Liver Pill
(SUGAR COATED)
One Pill is a Dose! One Pill is a Dose!

For all Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of the Urine, Dr. Haydock's New Liver Pills are a perfect cure. One Pill will satisfy the most skeptical.
For Female Diseases, Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, Want of Appetite and Sick Headache, Dr. Haydock's New Liver Pills, will be found an Effectual Remedy.
They are universal in their effects, and a cure can almost always be guaranteed.
Each vial contains Twenty Pills. One Pill is a Dose. Price Twenty-five cents.

EDITOR'S TABLE

There will be competition next year here in the Italian opera line, as several musically-inclined capitalists have joined to bring out a company for the National Theatre. This is good news; but Buenos Aires opera-goers always expect too much, and, consequently, there is always some growling, and really good singers are often pooh-poohed because they are not celebrities. The supply of lyric stars in Europe is not half equal to the demand, so it is folly to expect that they will come out here, and we must be content with good second-raters.

Dr. Domingo Puignao wishes to sell the Municipality some views of the Plaza Victoria taken in 1851. He only asks the moderate sum of 250 nats Surely antiquity hath its price as well as its charms.

The remains of the two brothers and captains Crouzelles were brought to the city, and buried yesterday. The touching nature of the scene can be appreciated when their devotion to the career they had chosen and perished in is remembered. Both were well known and much liked both in private and military circles. Their sad but noble end entitles them to the distinction of martyrs to the duty that was their religion.

A mode of swindling common enough in Europe is beginning to be practised here. A most suspiciously respectably dressed fellow, with a face as sober as his coat, visited some of the principal native and foreign families of the city on Wednesday, soliciting subscriptions for the erection of a monument, etc, to the late Dr. J. C. Gomez. He produced a roll of papers quite as imposing as a junior counsel's brief, and stated that he had been authorized to collect by a committee. His papers showed that he had received many sums, none under 20 nats., from a great number of well-known people. He has decamped with a large amount, and the police as yet can find neither traces of him nor the committee.

Now that the public is fairly exasperated with Ferrari, there seems to be a fair field for another operatic "empresario" in the Teatro Nacional. Sr. Oliva is arranging to bring out another opera troop next winter, and if he gets hold of anything worth hearing, he will certainly be supported.

The St. Crispin Society has asked the Lord Mayor's permission to float an indefinite number of Cedulillas, to raise money to build a mausoleum for their bones in the Recoleta. We hope their efforts won't prove bootless.

The Consejo Deliberante appear to have lost their heads 'in toto.' They have summoned the Lord Mayor to appear before them on Monday next to answer the second string of charges against him, which, by the way, he has already done in the papers. It is known that His Lordship will treat this illegal summons with silent contempt, and the inevitable end of the ill-advised course the Council is pursuing will be a public outcry for its suppression by Congress. Seldom has a public body of sane men gone so completely off the track as this blessed first of elected Municipalities of Buenos Aires.

Sarmiento's grapes were in tremendous demand yesterday. At Mr Charpentier's Rotisserie, at the corner of Calles Cuyo and Florida, there was a crowd of buyers all day long. These "uvas" surpass in flavour anything we are accustomed to in this city, and are second only to English-grown hot-house grapes.

Number 14,918 won the big prize of 10,000 Nats in yesterday's Lottery.

The Pueblo of Mercedes publishes the list of prize winners at the recent Fair there. Our friend Mr. Nicholas Lowe stands at the head of it, with a double weight gold medal, and a diploma of honour signed by all the members of the Grand Jury. We also see in the list the names of Samuel B Hale & Co., Enrique Meyer, Gentili, etc. We warmly congratulate Mr. Lowe on his deserved success; he is always to the front when the good of the country is in question. Messrs S. B. Hale & Co. must also be congratulated on having won the gold medal for the best wool from general flocks. A Rural Society is about to be formed in Mercedes, and every estanciero in the partido who knows his own interest ought to join it. Union is strength.

The plethora of money in all pockets just now is illustrated by the fact (at least we suppose it is a fact, as an evening colleague says it) that, for the big Lottery of 50,000 Nats. (won by Dr. Pardo) on Monday last, the supply of tickets ran short, and 20,000 nats. worth more could easily have been sold. If so, the Administracion ought to try 100,000 Nats. for a big prize on the 9th of July.

Speculating in furniture is now as much the rage as venturing into National Bank Shares. A colleague says there is another "French marquis" ("un negociante conocida") with a lot of Parisian furniture worth a million paper dollars now in the auction ring. Somebody will get hurt in this new form of speculation.

While half Buenos Aires has the other half by the hair and ears about the Colon opera company, we see by the Rosario papers that they have a capital Italian company there, with all the best operas; and all the artists give great satisfaction.

The Tribuna announces the barbarous murder in Entre Rios of a "persona conocida" of this city, who was up there buying cattle and was suddenly assaulted and killed by three disguised gauchos.

A home correspondent says:—"I fear that the subscription which has been set on foot here for Madame Piccolomini, the great singer of thirty years ago, which has formed the theme of many eloquent articles in the daily press, will receive a serious blow if the statement made in a paper at Rome be correct. This is to the effect that Madame Piccolomini was comfortably married 24 years ago, and now resides in her own palace near Poggio Imperiale. She has a considerable personal fortune, and her husband, the Marquis Francisco Gaetani Della Fargua, possesses a large estate. Who can have prompted the subscriptions to cheer the declining years of the destitute prima donna?"

Pildoras Holloway.

Las virtudes de esta admirable medicina son especialmente eficaces para expulsar de la Sangre toda impureza. En los casos de debilidad, ella es incomparable, al paso que cura radicalmente las Indigestiones, y los desordenes generales del Higado, del Estomago, y de los Intestinos, restableciendose, como por encanto, el vigor y la salud normal, dichas Pildoras remueven asimismo las dolencias que suelen afligir a las Mugeres al llegar estas a la edad critica.

Unguente Holloway.

Este incomparable Balsamo sana los Males de Piernas y de Pecho, las Llagas Antiguas, y aun esas Ulceras cuyo orijen no conviena mencionar en un anuncio publico. Para todas las Erupciones cutaneas no hay remedio igual al Unguento Holloway, al que millares deben la salvacion, tanto de sus Brazos y Piernas como de su existencia.

Antes de comprar, examinese con mucha cautela el Rotulo en el Bote o la Caja, para cerciorarse si esta la direccion de 533 Oxford Street, London, pues si no esta, entonces se trata de perpetrar un descarado engaño.

☞ Se invitan a las personas que sean defraudadas por los vendedores que expenden 'Las Pildoras y el Ugüento de Holloway' falsificadas para que so sirvan al comunicarme los pormenores, e inmediatamente para formalizar procesos legales contra los Ofensores, y recompensare liberalmente a los Delatores por el trabajo que se tomen, comprometiendome a que no haya trascendencia de sus nombres.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864. The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Crup. Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleratic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
